Reckless Discharge of a Firearm Arrest

Last night at 5:00 PM Burr Ridge Police officers received a delayed report from a resident at 114 Chestnut Hills Circle that an unknown projectile, possibly a bullet, had pierced through the exterior wall of her home on Wednesday evening at approximately 10:30 PM. Officer Garcia responded to the home and determined that the damage was caused by a bullet. Officers conducted a door to door canvass of the homes in the area of 7200 Vine Street and ultimately located the offender who fired the rounds in the direction of 114 Chestnut Hills Circle. The offender cooperated with investigating officers and voluntarily surrendered his handgun and ammunition. The offender told officers that on Wednesday night at approximately 10:30 PM, he fired his .45 caliber handgun three times at a coyote in the marsh to protect his sister's dog. Spent casings were also recovered from the offender's rear yard where he fired the weapon. Our evidence technician recovered one .45 caliber bullet from an interior wall in the home.

The offender was charged with Reckless Discharge of a Firearm; a class 4 felony.
